

Heidelberg Spring Workshop Cancer Biology

April 23/24, 2009

DKFZ Lecture Hall; free access

23 April, 13:00 h to 18:30 h

Introduction, 13:00

Harald zur Hausen, 13:15 h

Former director of DKFZ and recent Nobel laureate

Klaus Lindpaintner, 14:00 h

Director Roche Genetics, Hoffmann-La Roche, Basel, CH

Martin Vingron, 15:00 h

Director at the MPI for Molecular Genetics in Berlin

Mike Taussig, 15:45 h

Chairman of the ESF Functional Genomics Programme, Cambridge, UK

Mathias Uhlen, 16:45 h

Head of the Human Proteome Atlas project at KTH in Stockholm, Sweden

Mark Lathrop, 17:30 h

Director of CNG/CEPH in Evry/Paris, France

24 April, 9:30 h to 13:45 h

Mariano Barbacid, 09:30 h

Director of the Spanish Cancer Research Center CNIO in Madrid

John Neoptolemos, 10:15 h

Head of Surgery and Oncology at the Royal Liverpool University Hospital, UK

Otmar Wiestler, 11:15 h

Scientific Director of DKFZ

Iain Mattaj, 12:00 h

Director of EMBL in Heidelberg

The workshop aims at gathering innovative and possibly unorthodox to controversial views about the progress and future direction of cancer research from distinguished speakers from different areas of biomedical research.

Organisation:

Jörg D. Hoheisel

Functional Genome Analysis, DKFZ

Markus Büchler

Department of Surgery, University of Heidelberg

dkfz.

DEUTSCHES
KREBSFORSCHUNGSZENTRUM
IN DER HELMHOLTZ-GEMEINSCHAFT

