On the German side the cooperation program is limited to scientists of the German Cancer Research Center (DKFZ). Further information is available on the DKFZ intranet:
<https://intranet.dkfz.de/unsere-zentren/transnationale-standorte-kooperationen/israelkooperation>

On the Israeli side researchers working in academic institutions, as well as in governmental or public research institutes and hospitals can act as potential project partner, for instance:

Bar Ilan University	www.biu.ac.il/
Ben Gurion University of the Negev	www.bgu.ac.il/
Haifa University	www.haifa.ac.il/
Hebrew University	www.md.huji.ac.il/
Technion, Haifa	www.technion.ac.il/
Tel Aviv University	www.tau.ac.il/
Tel Aviv Sourasky Medical Center	www.tasmc.org.il/
Weizmann Institute of Science; Rehovot	www.weizmann.ac.il/

Projects (including their partners) sponsored by the German Government shall be located within the geographic area under the jurisdiction of the state of Israel prior to June 5, 1967. This is without prejudice to the status of territories that came under Israeli administration after June 1967 and should not be construed as prejudicing Israel's principled position in this matter.

An Israeli PI may apply for funding under the framework of this program providing that a period of at least two years exists from the end of the last period funding as PI. This does not apply to the DKFZ partner.
